

CALL FOR BOARD MEMBERS

Are you passionate about the issues of immigrants and support services?

About Us

OUR VISION at the Immigrants Working Centre is to ensure “Immigrants achieve social and economic success as essential partners in Hamilton’s prosperity”. IWC is a leader in providing settlement services in Hamilton, welcoming new Canadians and supporting their full social, civic and economic participation in the city.

Established in 1988, IWC provides a broad range of settlement services to newcomers in areas such as settlement counselling, English language training, employment services and community connections. We are Hamilton’s only dedicated settlement service organization, delivering in-person and online services in 16 languages at four locations in Hamilton.

The IWC Board meets monthly and members are also expected to join at least one Board committee. Meetings are currently held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month. Total Board commitment is approximately 5 hours per month. We are seeking individuals from the community broadly considered The Greater Toronto Hamilton region of Southern Ontario.
